PENROSE SAID TO HAVE PROOF ROOSEVELT KNEW OF BIG FUND

Re-Opening of Investigation About Sept. 30 Promises Some Sensations

BY C. S. ALBERT.

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 19.—The Penrose revelations concerning the campaign fund of 1904, and his charges that George W. Perkins underwrote a campaign fund of $3,000,000 for the Roosevelt re-election campaign this year, have aroused great interest among politicians at Washington. The Democrats believe that the investigation commenced August 23 should be made thorough and searching. Senators Pomerene and Paynter, the Democratic members of the committee making the investigations, want to go to the very bottom of the charges made by Senator Penrose. Senators Oliver and Jones, Republican members, demand a searching inquiry. President Taft has let it be known that he is in favor of a far-reaching investigation. Senator Clapp, chairman of the committee, and Colonel Roosevelt's representative on it, says there will be a thorough investigation and that if any persons are whitewashed it will not be his fault.

The Republicans on the committee have more confidence than have the other members. Senator Penrose, it is said, acquainted them with much of the testimony which will be introduced when the committee begins work on September 30.

Think Teddy Knew.

The report is current among the Republican members of the Senate who are backing President Taft's campaign for reelection that Senator Penrose has "additional evidence" which will show conclusively that Roosevelt knew of the $125,000 contribution made by the Standard Oil Company to the Colonel's campaign chest in 1904. It is said by some of the men who will be in constant attendance at the hearings of the committee that the late Cornelius M. Bliss left a complete record of the contributions made in 1904 and that these records are now in the possession of George Sheldon, treasurer of the Republican campaign committee in 1908 and of Mr. Taft's present committee. Mr. Sheldon, it is said, will turn over to the committee in October all these records.

The committee, through the chairman, has written to John D. Archbold, John D. Rockefeller, Senator Penrose, George B. Cortelyou, Chas. D. Hillis, William Loeb Jr., William Barnes, Timothy Woodruff, Representative William B. McKinley, Representative Oscar Underwood, Speaker Clark and other big public men to ascertain whether they will appear before the committee without subpoena. If they do not appear upon invitation they will be subpoenaed.

Senator Clapp is in Washington now arranging the preliminaries for the investigation. The rest of the committee will gather here on September 30, when it is expected the real work will be begun.

Work of Probe Long.

Not one member of the committee believes that the work will be completed before election time. All hope to have heard the testimony, however, of all the "big" witnesses.

Following the "big" witnesses on the stand will come employees and attaches of the campaign committees of both the Democratic and Republican parties in 1904. They will be cross-examined closely in the hopes of getting some real evidence.

Senator Pomerene will be the lawyer of the committee. He will conduct all the cross examination. Some of the members of the committee favor the employment of an attorney from outside of the committee and Congress. It is not expected this will be done.

It begins to look as if the lid might be lifted and the whole history of the turbulent scenes, in which money and negro delegates played a prominent part in Chicago last June, laid bare. Southern Democrats will urge the Democratic members to try to do this. Senator Clapp will try to have the Taft campaign prior to and at the convention exposed. It is certain the Republicans will do their best to show how much money was spent and how it was spent in behalf of Col. Roosevelt's candidacy before the regular convention and at the "Bull Moose" convention held at Chicago in August.

The Taft adherents assert that Perkins and other Roosevelt "swag" spenders disposed of hundreds of thousands of dollars in an effort to buy enough negro delegates from the South to assure the Colonel's nomination. They assert that from $1,000 to $1,500 was paid to more than one negro delegate for his vote. The Roosevelt friends come right back with the charge that whatever the Roosevelt people spent to buy the negro delegates the Taft people went a little higher and held them in line, at least a majority of them.

Trouble from Negro.

A negro delegate from Mississippi, who first was for Taft and then later for Roosevelt and who stood by Roosevelt to the last, will be called to testify as to an alleged offer of $10,000 to make an affidavit saying that the Roosevelt convention in Mississippi was not regular.

The big Republicans say that if Roosevelt is bent on dragging them and the party down to defeat and disgrace he (Roosevelt) will go too, and be on the very bottom of the pile. The higher minded Republicans say there will not be as much mud and mud as is anticipated. It is held that there is no crime for a corporation to contribute to a campaign fund. The crime, they assert, is when a corporation contributes and then seeks immunity from prosecution for wrongdoing. Anyway, the scenes in the Capitol the last of this month and all of next promise to be lively and full of news.

FOR DANDRUFF, FALLING HAIR OR ITCHY SCALP, 25 CENT "DANDERINE"

Save Your Hair! Danderine Destroys Dandruff and Stops
Falling Hair at Once—Grows Hair, We Prove It

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous you must use Danderine, because nothing else accomplishes so much for the hair.

Just one application of Knowlton's Danderine will double the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, don't hesitate, but get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will see this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. It eventually—why not now? A 25 cent bottle will truly amaze you.

MRS. C. C. B. ALLEN DIES AT HER HOME

Mrs. Cordelia Church Bishop Allen, widow of the late Colonel William F. Allen, died at her home on Beretania avenue yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Mrs. Allen came to the Hawaiian Islands in 1863 from Caldwell, N. Y., and was a cousin of the Hon. Charles Bishop. It was here that she first met her future husband. Their marriage took place in San Francisco and she has resided in Honolulu continuously ever since.

Since Colonel Allen's death in 1906, Mrs. Allen has been in poor health, but only within the week was her condition considered critical. She has been known here for her good works, lovable character and her interest in all charitable movements. She leaves a brother and a half-brother in Oakland, Cal., and a half-sister in Warrenburg, N. Y., her only blood relative in Honolulu at the present time being E. Faxon Bishop.

At the time of her death Mrs. Allen was 75 years old. The funeral will take place from the Allen residence this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment will take place after the arrival of Mrs. Allen's brothers from California.

STOMACH MISERY JUST VANISHES

No Indigestion, Gas or Sourness After Taking "Pape's Diapiesin"

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach, or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food, or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach headache—this is indigestion.

A full case of Pape's Diapiesin costs only fifty cents and will thoroughly cure your out-of-order stomach, and leave sufficient about the house in case some one else in the family may suffer from stomach trouble or indigestion.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula plainly printed on these fifty-cent cases, then you will understand why dyspeptic trouble of all kinds must go, and why they usually relieve sour, out-of-order stomachs or indigestion in five minutes. Diapiesin is harmless and tastes like candy, though each dose contains power sufficient to digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides, it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite; but, what will please you most, is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for brilliancy or constipation.

This city will have many Diapiesin cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be cranky about this splendid stomach preparation, too, if you ever try a little for indigestion or gastritis or any other stomach misery. Get some now, this minute, and forever rid yourself of stomach trouble and indigestion.

BALDWIN HEIRS "MAKE UP" AFTER QUARREL

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 19.—A threatened estrangement between Hull L. McLaughry and his wife, Anita Baldwin-McLaughry, heirs of a portion of the "Lucky" Baldwin estate, resulted in the hurried summoning of an attorney to Mrs. McLaughry's apartments at the Palace Hotel late last night and a midnight conference between McLaughry and his wife, which finally resulted in the announcement that everything had been smoother over.

McLaughry and his wife both arrived at the Palace yesterday and took separate rooms on the eighth floor. McLaughry was accompanied by several detectives whom he said he had hired for the purpose of guarding his wife, but which Mrs. McLaughry declared were keeping up a system of espionage over her.

This morning McLaughry stated that the difference between him and his wife had been satisfactorily adjusted and ascribed the trouble to ill health, from which both himself and his wife have been suffering. McLaughry has been acting as executor of the Baldwin estate and came to this city to settle some small claims. Two New and Speedy Steamers.
